

access statement

At the Black Boy Inn, we believe our guests should be able to make an informed decision as to whether our premises, with its characteristic low ceilings, narrow corridors and exposed beams, meet their particular access needs.

We welcome all of our guests without discrimination and strive to make it accessible to all.

The inn is situated in the centre of town with a drop off point outside the main entrance.

On-site car parking facilities are free to customers and 20 meters from the inn's main entrance. Tarmacadam and paving is at surface level to the main entrance. There is a step at the front door.

Caernarfon is situated on the main North Wales bus route.

The nearest mainline train station is Bangor, 9 miles away.

The reception has been modified for wheelchair users. There is no loop system installed.

Bedrooms situated in the inn are not easily accessible to wheelchairs and are spread over two floor levels with steps.

The Black Boy Inn is a historic building and thus due to its structural layout is not easily accessible to wheelchairs. It has uneven floors and narrow passages; nothing is of standard width.

A ground floor toilet suitable for wheelchair access.

No lift facility.

Guide dogs allowed.

If this statement fails to address your particular query, please do not hesitate to contact us. We are more than happy to provide additional information as well as offer support during your visit to the Black Boy Inn.
